

HAYDEN WOOLLEN & THE HOODBILLY CHRONICLE

Hayden Woollen & the Hoodbilly Chronicle is a native Texas Country Band. Fresh off the success of their freshmen effort "I'm Drinkin'", which set their career in full motion.

"What the Hell", the newest release from Woollen, sharply produced by veteran Texas guitar slinger KenRen, draws on deep, raw and sincere emotions that can sting you and make you think all in one fall swoop. The energy of the playing, the intensity of the vocals, and the emotion of the lyric combine for a one of a kind musical thrill ride for every listener who has ever been at the end of their emotional rope, "What the Hell" asks the question each of you have asked yourself a million times. It just took Hayden Woollen to put pen to paper and make it a household saying. Ask for it at your local radio station today, or visit spotify or any of the major online streaming services. Brought to you by Blues Highway Records.

The band is in the Studio now working on their new collection of songs and they just received the CMA of Texas Award for "Band of the Year 2025". Hayden's soulful voice, backed by the outstanding musicians, Tevin Benjamin on Drums, Zane Reynolds on Guitar and Walker Shoemake on Bass will steal the show!
